

IT Services

Sussex Direct: Publication Pages

Sussex Direct enables you to enter and update details of your publications

- b. What type of publication it is (e.g. Journal Article, Chapter in Book, Authored Book etc)
 - c. If it is a journal article, enter the name of the journal
 - d. The author type (e.g. whether you are the sole author or whether the publication has been co-authored)
 - e. The status of the publication (whether it has been published, or is waiting publication)
2. Click 'Next' to move to the next section

The screenshot shows a web-based form for adding a new publication. The title is 'The Science of Air'. The publication type is 'Journal Article'. The author is listed as 'Solo Author'. The journal name is partially visible. The volume is 234, issue number is 2, and the page range is 12-45. There are checkboxes for 'Published' and 'Shortlisted for REF'. The form has a 'Save' button at the bottom right.

3. You will need to complete information about your publication.
4. You can specify whether you want your publication to be published your profile page on the university website.
5. You can specify whether you want your publication to be shortlisted for the REF.
6. Click 'Save' button to commit your changes

Adding Co-authors to your Publications

Publications should only be added to the Publications List (and hence the

Editing your Publications

youons'docIIIIIIIP From youons'docIIIIIIIPage

Publishing Preferences – Web Profile