

Thursday 11th of May 2023

8:30AM 9:15AM Arrival Coffee and Mingling

9:15AM 10:45AM Session 3: Economics, Equity and Technologies in Global Health

Chair

Anne Roemer-Mahler The (new) politics of pharmaceutical manufacturing in Africa

Renu Singh Public Support for Global Vaccine Distribution: Evidence from Germany, Italy, and the US

Simon Rushton -19 pandemic:
Technology as a way of narratively resolving tensions between health security and economic interests

10:45AM 11:00AM Coffee Break

11:00AM 12:30PM Session 4: Entanglements, Interactions and the Blurring of Boundaries in Global Health

Chair Stefan Elbe

Laboratories in/of global security

Jana Fey Cryonics and the global politics of immortality

Katharina Wezel Feeling safe, knowing security the case of Covid-19 lateral flow tests in health security governance

Nadine Voelkner Viral becomings: from mechanical viruses to viral (dis)entanglements in preventing global disease

12:30 1:00PM Recap, Discussion and Goodbyes