- 10.7 If you fail to pay your Course fees or any other payments owed to the University, we will take firm, fair and timely steps to recover all debt owed by you. The University might refuse to allow you to advance or withdraw you from your Course if you do not pay your Course fees. If you fail to make payment of costs other than Course fees the University will take steps to recover the debt. The University may take legal action to recover any unpaid debt.
- 10.8 If a sponsor has agreed to pay all or part of your Course fees, you will

- 11.4.1 If the University needs to make material changes to your Course we shall let you know as soon as possible. If you reasonably believe that the changes will prejudicially affect you then you may cancel this Contract and withdraw your application without any liability for Course fees (even if the cancellation period has expired).
- 11.4.2 If The University needs to make material changes to your Course then we will make reasonable endeavours to consult with you and will notify you of the changes as soon as possible. The University will take reasonable steps to minimise any adverse effect of the changes. If the University makes material change(s) to your Course for reasons other than circumstances which are outside the University's reasonable control and you do not want to continue on your Course then the University will try to transfer you to a suitable alternative course of study. If you are dissatisfied with the alternative course of study proposed and consider that the material changes to your course have prejudicially affected you, you will be entitled to withdraw from your course without any further liability for course fees. The University may also refund you for any course fees which you have paid up to withdrawal if it considers that the material changes adversely affect you.
- 11.5 If your Course includes the option for you to apply for a placement, it is your responsibility to apply for and secure a placement. If you are successful then the placement will form part of your Course. If you are not able to secure a placement the University will transfer you to non-placement version of your Course, provided always that you are in good academic standing.

period has expired).

- 12.3 If the University cancels your Course after you have registered at the University, we will notify you as soon as possible and we will use reasonable endeavours to transfer you to a suitable replacement course. If you are unhappy with a replacement course provided, or if the University is unable to provide a suitable replacement course, You may cancel this Contract and withdraw from the University without any further liability for Course fees (even if the cancellation period has expired) and you will receive a refund of tuition fees paid up to the date of withdrawal.
- 12.4 If your Course is cancelled and you do not wish to transfer to an alternative course at the University we will use reasonable endeavours to help you find an alternative comparable course with another UK Higher Education provider.
- 13.1 Nothing in this agreement will limit the University's liability for:
- 13.1.1 death or personal injury caused through the University's negligence; or
- 13.1.2 any fraud or for any sort of other liability which, by law, cannot be limited or excluded.
- 13.2 The University will not be liable for any injury sustained which was caused by another student or by any person who is not an employee or authorised agent of the University.
- 13.3 The University will not be liable for any loss or damage to Students' personal property (including computer equipment and software), including any financial or other consequential loss where such loss or damage is a result of theft, fire, flood, computer virus or any cause related to our computer facilities, or any other cause, except where such loss or damage is caused by our negligence. It is recommended that you insure personal property against such risk of loss and damage.
- 13.4 Neither you, nor the University, will be liable for failure to perform any obligations under this Contract if the failure arises from circumstances that are beyond that party's reasonable control. In the case of the University, circumstances beyond its reasonable control include (but are not limited to) implementation of action required by the UK government or a regulatory body, closure of part or all of the University for health and safety reasons or industrial action or other similar action by University staff. The University will take reasonable steps to ensure that, so far as possible in the circumstances, the consequences of a failure to act in accordance with this Contract as a result of circumstances beyond the University's control are kept to a minimum. In the case of a student, circumstances beyond reasonable control may include (but are not limited to) bereavement or ill health. You are advised to contact the Student Support Centre if you are experiencing problems in your studies.
- 14.1 You shall own any intellectual property you generate and provide to us during your Course, however by entering into this Contract you grant us an irrevocable non-exclusive licence to use such intellectual property in furtherance of the objectives of the University.

- 15.1 If you have additional support needs due to a disability, including an autism spectrum condition, dyspraxia, dyslexia or specific learning difficulties, mental health conditions or physical health conditions, you are encouraged to let the University know at the earliest opportunity. The University will seek to support you whenever possible and adjustments can be put in place if appropriate. To ensure that you can receive support, please contact the Student Support Unit at disabilitysupport@sussex.ac.uk prior to accepting your Offer for confidential advice and information on what support is available. You may also be eligible for Disabled Student (<https://www.gov.uk/disabled-students-allowances-dsas>).
- 15.2 Whilst students are not under any obligation to disclose a disability and the University will always endeavour to support students, if you do not let us know that you are disabled, or do not provide full information, you may not be able to get full or timely access to the support you may need.
- 16.1 The University will process your personal data in accordance with UK data protection legislation and our data protection policies contained in the Supplementary Documents. We may share y policies which apply at that time.
